

ROYAL SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCE SOCIETY
MELBOURNE & DISTRICT BRANCH INC.

‘Moving Forward with Finesse’

A day class for Dancers of Intermediate, Higher Intermediate or Advanced Level

will be held on

Saturday 24 June, 10.00 am

St James’ Uniting Church Hall
Cnr. Riversdale Road & Lyndoch Street
Box Hill South (Mel Ref 61 C3)

Class Teacher – Ms Christine Freeman

Are you able to perform all steps and most formations to a high standard of accuracy? Can you show good phrasing, handing and covering? Can you sustain this level of performance throughout the entire duration of a class? Do you wish to improve your steps and technique? Do you wish to learn some of the newer, advanced formations? Dancers of the Intermediate, Higher Intermediate and Advanced Levels are welcome to attend this class which will focus on the improvement of steps and phrasing and include advanced formations.

1. Day Class Fee - Branch Members - $ 15.00 & Non-Members - $ 22.00
2. Recommended dress at Branch Classes
Ladies, skirt & top or dress. Men, kilt or trousers or shorts & long hose. Dancing shoes required
3. Numbers for classes are critical. Once committed to attend the class, if you are unable to attend for any reason please contact the teacher to advise of your absence. Should there be insufficient numbers i.e. 12 dancers, the class will be cancelled.
4. Bring your own lunch – tea & coffee provided
5. Please have your form signed by your class teacher and return it before Friday 16 June, 2017 to the Branch Secretary
